

In the Word for 12/22/19 (Handout)

Morality is Important – Hebrew Ch. 13

1. What feelings, on the part of his readers, did the writer want continued (v.1)? _____

2. Why should they show love to strangers (v.2)? _____
3. What people were they to remember (v.3)? _____
4. What sins particularly call for God's judgment (v.4)? _____
5. How should they feel about money (v.5)? _____
6. Who would be their source of help (v.6)? _____
7. How should they act toward those who had brought God's word to them (v.7)? _____

8. How changeable is Jesus (v.8)? _____
9. How should they react to new and strange teachings (v.9)? _____
10. What restriction did the writer mention as to the food of those serving the tabernacle (v.10)? _____
11. What happened to the bodies of animals killed in sacrifice (v.11)? _____
12. Where was Jesus when he suffered (v.12)? _____
13. Therefore, where did the writer instruct his readers to go (v.13)? _____
14. What city were they seeking (v.14)? _____
15. What sacrifice should they continue to offer (v.15)? _____
16. How would God feel about such sacrifices (v.16)? _____
17. Who should they obey (v.17)? _____
18. For whom should they pray (v.18)? _____
19. Where did the writer expect to go, in answer to their prayers (v.19)? _____

20. What had God done for the Lord Jesus (v.20)? _____
21. What did the writer want God to do for his readers (v.21)? _____
22. Who should receive the glory for all this (v.21)? _____

23. How long a letter did the writer feel he had written (v.22)? _____
24. What happened to Timothy (v.23)? _____
25. Who else sent greetings (v.24)? _____